

The CANADIAN
Business Hall of Fame

Proudly Announcing the 2024 Inductees to the Order of the Business Hall of Fame

The Canadian Business Hall of Fame honours and celebrates the leaders of today who inspire the leaders of tomorrow.

V. Prem Watsa, C.M., MBA

Chairman & Chief Executive Officer, Fairfax Holdings Limited

- Fairfax Holdings Limited, a property and casualty insurance and reinsurance company, was founded by Prem Watsa in 1985. Prem led the company's global expansion and evolution, establishing Fairfax as a worldwide leader, operating in more than 100 countries.
- Mr. Watsa is a Recipient of the Order of Canada and the Padma Shri Award, one of the highest awards in India. He is active on a number of Advisory Boards and is a member of the Sick Children's Hospital Foundation and Chairman of their Investment Committee.

Louis Audet, C.M., O.Q., P. Eng., MBA

Chairman of the Board, Cogeco Inc., & Cogeco Communications Inc.

- Louis Audet joined Cogeco in 1981, and by 1985, he was instrumental in bringing the company public. Committed to growth and innovation, Louis led Cogeco to become a leading North American Telecommunications Company serving Québec, Ontario and 13 states in Eastern U.S.A.
- Mr. Audet was named a Member of the Order of Canada in 2013 and Officier de l'Ordre National du Québec in 2022. Louis values his home community and actively supports numerous Montreal-based causes, in particular, the Old Brewery Mission.

H. Stanley Marshall, BSc (Chem. Eng.), LLB

Corporate Director & Retired Chief Executive Officer, Fortis Inc.

- Stanley Marshall's tenure with Fortis Inc. spanned 35 years and more than 18 years as President and CEO of the Corporation. Under his leadership, Fortis grew into the largest investor-owned gas and electric distribution utility in Canada.
- With great pride for his home province, Stanley has encouraged and supported projects documenting the history of Newfoundland and contributes to many local causes. Mr. Marshall was inducted into the JA Newfoundland and Labrador Business Hall of Fame for his outstanding contributions in business and to his province.

Jay S. Hennick, C.M., J.D.

Global Chief Executive Officer & Chairman, Colliers International,
Founder & Chairman, FirstService Corporation

- Jay Hennick was 17 years old when he founded his first company. With his strong entrepreneurial vision, he established FirstService Corporation, made it public in 1993, then in 2015, he separated it into two companies. Jay serves as Founder, Chairman & largest Shareholder of FirstService, the largest residential property management and services company in North America as well as Global Chairman, CEO & Controlling Shareholder, Colliers International, a global leader in commercial real estate and investment management.
- Mr. Hennick was appointed as a Member of the Order of Canada in 2019. Through the Hennick Family Foundation, Jay and his wife Barbara, actively support many causes in healthcare, education and the arts.

"We congratulate the Canadian Business Hall of Fame Inductees who are recognized for their vision and leadership, national and global economic impact, civic engagement and philanthropy. They serve as exceptional role models for aspiring young leaders."

Janice Fukakusa, C.M., Chancellor, CBHF Selection Committee
Chancellor, Toronto Metropolitan University

2024

Join us as we honour these inspiring business leaders at the Canadian Business Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony & Celebration, the signature national fundraising event in support of JA Canada.
May 23, 2024, Metro Toronto Convention Centre

To sponsor the event, for event tickets and more information
info@cbhf.ca | www.cbhf.ca | www.jacanada.org

In Support of

Member of
JA Worldwide

Selection Committee Partner

Media Partner

JA Canada is a leading youth education non-profit. JA equips youth with the skillset and mindset for success. Inspiring the next generation to realize their potential and build transferable skills in financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship.